BEST FOR BODY SCULPTING

Angelika Kavouni
Kavouni is a cosmetic surgeon who employs a variety of body-sculpting methods to help women reclaim their bodies after childbirth. As a mother of two, she is very empathetic, and her Bikini Body Tummy Tuck uses a combination of skilful surgery – she can revise Caesarean scars and will even fashion you a new tummy button if necessary – with non-surgical techniques such as Liposonix, a device that uses ultrasonic waves to melt away fat, and the Bodytite, a skin-tightening laser. *Consultation, from £75; tummy tucks, from £3,800.
